Chip Robinson
BUSINESS MENTOR

Chip is a proven senior executive with a sales, consulting, and hands-on operational background. He is a strategic thinker with a gift for keeping strategy and tactics focused on the pragmatic - on results! He is a master of process improvements that are required to produce bottom-line results for a business and at the same time create ease and space to breathe for the people involved. He can support you in ensuring your financial reporting supports your goals and provides timely strategic insights that inform your thinking.

Justin Buist
CFO + CONTROLLER

Justin specializes in working with small and medium-sized businesses that require accounting and finance expertise. His 'niche' is providing the 'next level' focus in a business' financials. He works closely with owners and management on financial strategies and best practices that fit the company's needs. Justin is married to Meghan and has 3 young children keeping him busy! He is a deacon at his church and feels very humbled by that calling.

Susan Andriyani
BOOKKEEPER

Susan loves all things numbers and helping small business understand their financials through effective bookkeeping. She is also a spouse and mother who loves outdoor activities, traveling, cooking, and crocheting. In her spare time, you will find her crocheting while enjoying soft music, mostly jazz. Most of her crochet creations get donated to the local public school during the holidays. You may find her name at Provincial Courts or Immigration/Refugee hearings as an Accredited Indonesian Interpreter/Translator.

Justin has helped us set up things up more sensibly, is tailored for us, and meets with us monthly to ensure we're on top of key numbers. As a result, I always know where we are at, and we now can adjust quicker to ensure winning results. It's way less work for us, and it's removed the guessing and stress!
